THE NAMES OF GOD - Book by Marilyn Hickey "EL SHADDAI"

In discussing the name ELOHIM in a previous lesson, we saw that "EL" displays God's qualities of power and might. The name EL SHADDAI bears a different meaning entirely... meaning God Almighty. It is derived from the word "field" as fields produce abundance. It is also translated as "breast" or "the many breasted one", which signifies nourishment and productiveness. When we think of the name EL SHADDAI, we are saying that God is more than enough to meet your needs in every situation.

READ: Exodus 6: 2-8 AMP, Deuteronomy 10:17-22 AMP - God reveals His Mighty hand and shows His awe and wonder as God above all things without limitation to His own.

1. In your own words, describe how God has revealed His Almighty works in your life.
2. What acts of kindness could you show to others to indicate you are a child of God?

READ: Exodus 15:22-25 AMP, Exodus 16:13-16 AMP - God takes hold of natural things and turns them into miracles.

3. Describe a time where you or someone you know received a miracle from EL SHADDAI.

READ: Ephesians 3:14-19 AMP - No matter how tough your circumstances may appear, EL SHADDAI is more than enough to strengthen and help you.

4. What do you need EL SHADDAI to do for you today?
